GOOD LUCKER FLAGSTAFF EAGLES

Flagstaff High School Football began a tradition of excellence in 1923 that still carries on today. Flagstaff football rose to state dominance in 1981 claiming the first of four straight State Championship trophies. As the new Head Coach at Flagstaff High School, my coaching staff and I are honored to have the opportunity to follow in the footsteps of the State Champions who came before us.

Twenty-five football seasons have passed since the first State Championship team in 1981. The 2007 Eagles have set the lofty goal of bringing the State Championship trophy back to Flagstaff

High School. We have a dedicated group of coaches and administrators who are committed to seeing our young men prepared academically to enter college, being model student-athletes in our community, and playing like champions on the field. We look forward to seeing our alumni and fans "Fill the Dome"

Saturday, August 25th as we battle Moon Valley in the final game of the 2007 Kick-Off Classic. Please help us "Fill the Dome" and kick-off football in the state of Arizona in the mountain community of Flagstaff.

It is a new day for Flagstaff High School Football!

Congratulations to James Brooks

NAU Lumberjacks Ready to Go Nine Starters on Offense Back for 2007 Season

By David Kukulski

Northern Arizona University's coaching staff, players and fans hope things come together, so this can be a very special year.

There's every reason for optimism. The Lumberjacks doubled up on victories last year (from three in 2005 to six in 2006). They have 39 returning lettermen, including nine starters on offense and five regulars on defense. NAU posted winning records in the Big Sky Conference (4-3) and overall (6-5), despite opening the season on the road against Arizona State and Utah.

Well, the Lumberjacks deserve a lot of respect. They absorbed one-sided losses to ASU (35-14) and Utah (45-7) before rebounding to win six of the final nine contests.

Even the three defeats showed character: a 39-32 barnburner at home versus Montana State, a 24-21 nail-biter before 23,626 fans at third-ranked Montana and a 34-26 sparring session at the Dome against #25 Portland State.

They won their final two games last fall against Weber State and Northern Colorado by a 96-20 count.

Sure, if they can replace QB Jason Murrietta, the runnerup for the coveted Walter Payton Award. Murrietta had a brilliant career with the Jacks. In his senior year alone, he connected on 214 of 329 passes for 2,827 yards and 34 scores against just five interceptions.

Last year's backup – junior Lance

Kenny Mahone was the second leading receiver for the Lumberjacks in 2006, grabbing 40 passes for 474 yards and six touchdowns. He also returned punts and kickoffs for NAU (Paynter Pics).

Kriesien – might get first shot to replace Murrietta. Or it could one of a couple of other squad members or possibly Fresno State transfer Sean Norton. As a senior, he merely led Hart HS to the CIF Division II title, checking in with an incredible 4,067 yards passing and 44 six-pointers.

Whoever takes over at quarterback will be blessed with a first-class receiving corps. The undisputed leader of that group is returning First-Team All-America Alex Watson. He enjoyed a fantastic junior season, bringing in 82 receptions for 1,017 yards and an eye-popping 15 TDs. Against ASU in the first game of the year, he torched the Sun Devil secondary for 12 catches for 214 yards. He has a great chance to move on to the NFL next year.

But, as good as Watson is, he's far from the whole show. Fellow wideout Kenny Mahone chipped in with 40 receptions for nearly 500 yards and six touchdowns. He's back too. So is Skyler Moore (39 for 687 yards and nine TDs). Ditto TE Shaun Fitzpatrick (20-229-1) and RB Alex Henderson (14-215-1).

Speaking of Henderson, he paced the 2006 NAU running attack, gaining 1,014 yards rushing as a redshirt freshman. The Lumberjack offense may be a little more dependent on the running game, especially early in the year while Coach Souers finds a suitable replacement for the departed Murrietta. Henderson could have a monster career in Flagstaff.

The O-Line returns four of five starters – including the likes of mammoth tackle Justin Tyler (6-7, 320), Trevor Heekin, Kevin Meagher and Jon Toailoa.

Placekicker Robbie Dehaze was remarkable as a sophomore last fall. He hit 13 of 17 field goal attempts, including 7-10 from 40+ yards. He was also 43 of 44 on PATs, so the kicking game is a big-time plus. Replacing punter Rhian Madrid will be a chore. As a senior in 2006, Madrid merely averaged 44.4 yards per punt, placing 13 down inside the 20.

Defensively, NAU has a bit more rebuilding to do.

Safety Jeff Wheeler, who led the Jacks in tackles and tied for the lead in interceptions, is gone via graduation. Linebacker Chris Hunsaker was second in tackles and collected 11.5 sacks; he's gone. Another linebacker, D.J. Wade, was third in tackles – gone. Well, you get the idea.

That's not to say some good talent isn't returning. As a junior, DE DeAndre Johnson had 47 total tackles, including 4.5 behind the line of scrimmage. He'll help anchor the defensive line in 2007, along with big DE Drew Hoffman, another senior. Blair Boynton, who was injured against ASU and lost for the season, has recovered and should be a factor along the defensive front.

Senior Shaun Baker is a bruising linebacker and he's back. Joining him will be junior Jared Fano and senior Joe Mitchell.

One of the leaders in the secondary should be senior safety Adam Wright; he registered 40 tackles and a pick last year.

Senior Ricky Wilson is coming off a solid season and will also play a major role as a defensive back.

Cornerback K.J. Gerard is back and ready to play, after being injured in the ASU contest.

Austin Martin had a fine freshman campaign and the Lumberjacks will benefit from his work for the next three years. You might also watch Kurt Karstens, Marcus McIlwain, Niegel Clemens, Trason Bragg and Nate Dedic. Karstens had three interceptions last fall.

Obviously, Souers is hoping some of the underclassmen on last year's team, as well as some of the new recruits shown on this page, can help fill in the gaps.

The NAU defense gave up 27 points and 378 yards of total offense per game last season. Those numbers aren't earthshattering, but they were good enough to help produce a winning record.

Last fall, the NAU offense recorded 34 points and 405 yards per outing. Impressive statistics. You don't get there without good coaching, talented players and a lot of hard work.

That's the key to success every year. The Lumberjacks seem to be headed in the right direction. Let's play football!

Prescott, Mingus, Flagstaff 4A Contenders Wickenburg, Blue Ridge Battle for 3A Honors

KINGMAN is the only Northern Arizona school competing at the 5A level. The Bulldogs are members of the 5A-2 Northwest Region, comprised of rivals Barry Goldwater, Boulder Creek, Deer Valley, newcomer Valley Vista and Willow Canyon.

Tough company, indeed! Kingman (1-9 in 2006) is counting on OT/LB Michael Riger (6-2, 200) and FB/LB John Soto (5-11, 220) to spark their teammates to a better slate in 2007.

"We had a very successful 2006 season," says PRESCOTT Head Coach Lou Beneitone. "Many players are working hard, wanting to repeat last year's success. Our biggest slot to fill is the quarterback position. Dan Trail, the QB from last year, will be a big loss."

But the Badgers have a powerful bunch of 22 veterans from last year's 9-3 varsity. Headliners of that group are WR/DL/LB Isaac Chavez (6-1, 215), RB/DB Keith Knudsen (6-2, 185), OL/LB Bryan Barberena (6-0, 200), WR/DB Skyler Branch (6-0, 180), RB/DB Chris Shipp (5-8, 185) and RB Levi Carter (6-1, 225) – all twelfth-graders.

Heavy contributions are also expected from OL Troy Boehm (6-2, 220, Sr.), OL/DL Daniel Brutinel (6-2, 234, Sr.), LB Lopati HoChee (6-0, 205, Sr.), TE/DL Jordan Magdeleno (6-2, 210, Sr.), OL/DL Spencer Campbell (5-11, 250, Jr.), RB/DB Jacob Jarvis (6-1, 195, Jr.), WR/DB Brian Scatos (6-1, 175, So.), TE/DE Nick Randall (6-3, 190, Jr.) and TE/DE Jordan Pruzina (6-3, 205, Jr.).

Either Trevor Cruz or Josh Chavez should win the nod at quarterback. TE/DE Ty Asay (6-4, 215) is a senior transfer from West Virginia.

LAKE HAVASU tackles its upcoming season with senior field general Trevor Athay (6-2, 205) at the helm. As a junior, he passed for over 1,000 yards and ran for nearly 900 more. He's a dynamic player for the Knights.

Also, keep your eyes on senior line-backer Mike Walton (5-11, 175). Last year he tallied 82 tackles and was all over the field.

Lake Havasu plays in the highly competitive 4A-1 West Valley Region against powerhouses Agua Fria, Cactus, Millennium and Peoria. Wins can be tough to come by, but the Knights (1-10 in 2006) are working hard to have more success.

The MINGUS Marauders have been in the 4A-2 title hunt the last couple of seasons. In 2005, Coach Bob Young guided his squad to the finale, where Mingus bowed to Palo Verde by a 15-7 count. In 2006, Mingus, seeded fifth, was eliminated by #4 Washington, 27-21, in the state quarterfinals.

Could it be that this 2007 team will produce the Marauders' first state football crown since 1997?

If that happens, you can count on running back Layton Dickerson to supply much of the firepower. As a junior, he rushed for over 1,200 yards and hit the end zone 21 times. Now a 5-11, 180-pound senior, he'll use his 4.5 speed to make life miserable for opposing teams.

And he's lucky enough to have some top-notch linemen opening the holes. Pay attention to OT/DT Aaron Hauser (6-2, 320, Sr.), OL C.J. Taylor (6-2, 210, Jr.), OL/DL Joe Chavez (6-2, 280, Sr.), OL/DL Brad Dixon (5-10, 230, Sr.) and OL/DL Justin Schultz (5-10, 210, Sr.).

Two more honors candidates – LB Emmanuel Hernandez (5-10, 210, Sr.) and TE/DE Tim Kessel (6-4, 210, Sr.) – should be key performers for the Marauders.

Others to watch include WR/DB Tim Austill (6-0, 160), RB Trevor Jones (5-8, 170), RB/DB Tyler Thompson (5-8, 170) and LB Joe Loehr (5-9, 180) – all seniors.

Altogether, Young has 25 lettermen back from his 10-3 team of a year ago. And, by the way, the JV finished with a perfect 8-0 mark in 2006.

Be ready to battle when you play the Marauders!

FLAGSTAFF has a new head mentor in Eric Affholter. The Eagles will certainly miss James Brooks (our Northern Arizona Player of the Year, see page 12), but a number of capable football players are ready to step in.

How well senior quarterback Ryan Hill (6-1, 195) plays will determine a lot about the upcoming season. He's in his first full year as a starter, but he has the tools to be a very good field general.

Providing protection will be the likes of senior linemen Jarrett Shughart (6-2, 235) and Lias Hastings (6-1, 200).

Other Eagles of note are RB/DB Patrick Bailey (6-0, 195), WR/DB Dillion Winiecki (6-4, 185), RB/K Jordan Brandel (5-8, 150) and RB/LB Ricardo Soto (5-9, 170) – all seniors.

Coach Al Melo and his MOHAVE Thunderbirds should be in the mix this time out. An imposing number (27) of returning lettermen could really make things happen in 2007.

Up front, Mohave has OL Dorrian Edwards (6-4, 260, Sr.), OL/DL Tyler Hughes (6-2, 260, Sr.) and OL/DL Gabe Munoz (6-3, 285, Sr.) to clear the way.

Randy Queen (6-0, 160, Jr.) calls the signals at quarterback, while FB/LB Cody Adams (6-2, 220, Sr.), RB Andrew Jackson (5-8, 160, Sr.), FB/LB Jay Mejia (5-10, 185, Sr.), TE/DE Tommy Taylor (6-5, 190, Sr.) and WR/LB Nick Padilla (6-1, 185, Sr.) make big plays. Kicker Matt Boyd (5-10, 160, Sr.) is also a reliable weapon.

Mohave was 6-5 in 2006. Expect good results in 2007.

We expect the Bears of BRADSHAW MOUNTAIN to fare better this fall.

Twenty-six lettermen are available from last year's squad (3-8) and Coach Chuck Apap will put them to good use in 2007.

Versatile Ben Pigg (5-10, 176) and powerful Matt Buehler (6-1, 220) are key seniors for Bradshaw Mountain this year. Pigg is good at just about everything he tries; he's a running back, defensive back, placekicker and punter for the Bears. He's also their fastest player. Buehler is a rock at both offensive guard and linebacker.

The quarterback could be recent transfer Marshall Bailey (6-2, 195, Jr.). Others to watch are WR/DB Justin Kilduff (5-10, 158, Sr.), RB/OLB Kevin Golleher (5-10, 180, Sr.), OL Kyle Arias (6-2, 278, Jr.), LB Steve Dutson (5-9, 203, Sr.), DT Emiliano Velazquez (5-10, 192, Sr.), DT Dillon Doucette (5-11, 327, Jr.), OG Joshua Campbell (5-8, 200, Jr.) and DT Devin Martinez (5-11, 203, So.).

"We will be very young and inexperienced," says COCONINO Head Coach Tadd Ragan. Only six varsity veterans are slated to return for the Panthers, 2-8 in 2006.

This squad may be lacking in some positions, but there are plenty of running backs and linebackers, headed by Johnny Cordova (5-10, 180, Jr.), Lucas Hull (5-10, 170, Jr.), Isaac Hector (5-10, 160, So.), Amos Combrink (5-10, 160, So.) and Brad Nittman (5-10, 160, So.).

The starting quarterback figures to be Matt Robertson, a 6-3, 180-pound junior. His chief receivers are Eric Cordova (5-8, 140, Sr.) and Josh Shirley (6-2, 160, Sr.). The top returning lineman is Troy Drovinn, a 6-3, 190-pound sophomore.

As good as Coolidge has been in recent years, WICKENBURG is still in the picture and deserves our utmost respect. Coach Norris Vaughan and his Wranglers battled past 13 straight rivals last year before dropping a hard-fought contest to Coolidge in the finals. Could another "Big Game Appearance" be just ahead?

Returning all-state quarterback Drew Vaughan (6-0, 174) will do his best to direct his team past the Bears in 2007. He completed 65% of his passes in 2006, good for 1,941 yards.

He has plenty of help too, thanks to 19 other lettermen back in uniform.

However, the offense returns just three starters, while the defense has eight regulars ready to go. Coach Vaughan will blend in the guys of last year's 8-0-1 JV.

Junior Blake Crissman (6-2, 225) earned all-state recognition as a sophomore tackle last fall. Sheldon Murphy (5-9, 160), another junior, is remarkable in the secondary. Senior DE Aaron Marsh (6-3, 190) could blossom into a college prospect.

Besides Crissman and Marsh, the line features DL Matt Deacon (5-10, 225, Sr.) and DE Dallas Mills (6-3, 180, Jr.). Best backer is Kellan Henderson (5-10, 185, Sr.), while the secondary is well-stocked with Jordan Pollec (5-10, 150, Jr.), Enrique Bernal (5-10, 160, Jr.) and Lane Leevitt (5-11, 160, Sr.) ready to defend. Kicker Derek Sievert (6-0, 180, Sr.) could be the difference in close games.

BLUE RIDGE, 8-4 in 2006, returns a solid foundation of players from a year ago. At the top of that list is senior quarterback Bryan Williams (6-3, 190). He has started 23 games thus far for the Yellowjackets and Head Coach Paul Moro thinks he has the ability to play college football.

Moro has seen plenty of good players in his 22-year career. His overall record of 233-41 borders on the unbelievable.

Williams will have plenty of familiar faces in the huddle, namely returning regulars RB Jose Rosales (5-10, 170, Sr.), RB Steel Armstrong (6-0, 205, Jr.), RB Isaah Parker (5-9, 180, Sr.), FL Ryan Martinez (5-9, 150, Sr.), SE Sterling Wise (6-1, 185, Sr.), TE Brian Ditton (6-0, 175, Sr.) and OL Dewight Boyd (6-5, 275, Sr.), Andy Chintis (6-0, 185, Sr.) Michael Lundgren (6-0, 195, Sr.) and Justin Webb (5-11, 180, Sr.).

Williams, Armstrong, Wise, Boyd and Lundgren also start on defense, along with DE Steve Parkinson (5-11, 175, Sr.), LB Justin Herrera (5-9, 180, Sr.), SS Griffin Sturn (5-11, 165, Jr.), CB Ryan Martinez (5-9, 150) and CB Dustin Simmons (5-10, 165, Jr.).

Others to watch are Nick Donahue, Andrew Haupt, James Pacheco, George Rucker, Josh Rogerson, Tyler Beus, Hayden Jones, Clayton Lee, Daniel Mendez, Nathan Schimmel, Gerald Stead, Steven Pearson and Jose Campos.

ROUND VALLEY is returning to its glory days. With Coach Russ Semore at the helm, the Elks were excellent in 2006, winning 11 of 12 contests. A respectable eight lettermen are back in uniform and members of last season's 9-1 junior varsity will also make big contributions.

It's difficult to overlook standout players like Travis Trickey, a 6-4, 225-pound senior linebacker. He's among the best in the state.

His running mate at another linebacker slot is senior Tell Udall (5-9, 185), while corners Evan Hamblin (6-1, 170) and Bauer Brown (5-9, 150) are also highly regarded.

The junior class is led by QB Hayden Eager (6-3, 170) and OT Jake Ray (6-2, 220). Coach Semore has a nifty 29-9 record in his three years in Springerville. It's more of the same for Round Valley in 2007.

WINSLOW has put together a nice run the last couple of years. The Bulldogs reached the title game in 2005, dropping a 34-19 decision to Coolidge.

Then, last November, Winslow advanced to the state semis, only to lose a heartbreaking 28-24 match to – you guessed it – eventual champion Coolidge.

Will this be the year the Bulldogs outlast the Coolidge Bears – and everyone else?

A good nucleus returns, paced by performers like OL/DL Joseph Larsen (6-2, 225), QB/DB John Gonzales (5-9, 165) and RB/SS Ray Grabowski (6-0, 175) – all seniors.

SNOWFLAKE has great speed on its side this year. Seniors Devin Peterson (5-11, 190), Logan Roger (5-9, 160), Cody Overbay (5-9, 155) and junior Matt Reidhead (5-8, 180) can all fly. All run 4.6 or better and Reidhead has clocked 10.87 in the 100 meters. Peterson and Reidhead are runners, while Roger and Overbay are receivers.

Quarterbacking the 2007 Lobos will be Nick Reidhead (5-10, 170, Sr.). Others to watch from last season's 4-7 club are OL/DL A.J. Rodriguez (6-1, 250, Sr.) and TE/LB Isaac Urling (6-2, 185, Sr.). A total of 30 lettermen return for Coach Adam Larsen.

There has been a coaching change at SHOW LOW. New head man Randy Ricedorff has introduced himself to 15 returning letterwinners from the 2006 group that finished 8-2.

He has five senior starters back, namely QB Jared McCarthur (5-11, 165), REC/DB Jordan Nikoulous (6-0, 180), REC/DE Derek Giger (6-1, 205), OT/DE Juston Covolt (6-1, 220) and RB/DB Phill O'Dell (6-1, 180) – all seniors.

Coach Bob David is ready for the season to begin. His CHINO VALLEY Cougars should be more than competitive, since 22 letterwinners are back.

Speedy Josh Clelland, a starter at wide receiver and free safety, is a player to watch. He's a 6-0, 170-pound senior with 4.5 speed.

Other skill-position players for Chino Valley are QB/DB J.J. Strickland (6-0, 170, Sr.), QB/LB Cole Whisenhunt (6-2, 175, Jr.), FB/DL Allen Feichter (6-2, 230, Sr.), TB/LB Johnny Ray Kennedy (5-9, 180, Jr.), HB/MLB Garrett Worster (5-9, 180, Jr.), WR/CB Wade Parker (5-10, 140, Jr.) and WB/CB Tyler Johnson (5-8, 170, Sr.).

Best of the big guys are OT/DL Merlin Hyland (5-11, 190, Sr.), OT/DL Cody Charlton (6-0, 220, Sr.) and C/DL Jess Feichter (6-1, 200, Jr.).

Plenty of returning tackles and running backs for Coach Josh Anderson at PAYSON, 4-6 last fall. The veteran line-men include honors candidate Scott Andrus (6-2, 265, Sr.), Matt Wilson (6-6, 260, Jr.) and Bryan Burke (6-5, 230, Jr.).

Carrying the pigskin will be B.J. Hill (5-11, 155, Sr.), David Carlen (6-2, 205, Jr.), Shane Keith (6-2, 180, Jr.) and Brandon Alexander (5-9, 165, So.).

A dozen lettermen are back from the team that won four and lost six last fall. Other mainstays include WR/DB Zach Brooks (6-1, 165, Sr.), QB/LB Ridge Halenar (5-11, 190, Jr.) and WR/DB Tyler Savage (6-2, 195, Jr.).

Coach Barry Bower likes his team at RIVER VALLEY. He welcomes back 19 lettermen from a solid 7-4 unit in 2006.

And there's some real talent on his side of the field, such as RB/OLB Josh Honacer (5-8, 165, Sr.), FB/LB Matt Hilton (5-10, 176, Sr.), OL/DL Tad Sioama (6-2, 260, Jr.), FB/CL Anthony Lozoya (5-8, 170, Jr.), OL/DL Chris Cashman (6-0, 225, Sr.), WR/DB Robert Roberson (5-6, 150, Sr.) and QB/LB Jake Anselmo (5-9, 170, Jr.).

The Dust Devils were just good enough to make the playoffs last year, falling in the first round to Coolidge, the two-time defending 3A State Champions.

TUBA CITY, well known for its prowess on the basketball court, is gearing up for a huge 2007 season. Coach Bryan Tate, formerly of Pine View High School in St. George, Utah, is very optimistic this team can be something special. "This is the strongest, fastest team I've had since I've been here," says Tate. The Warriors were a solid 8-5 last year, losing in the first round of the 3A state playoffs to 3A East power Show Low.

Tuba City's leading players this fall should be WR/SS Jimmy Tate (6-0, 195, So.), OT/DT Vincent Begay (6-2, 275, Sr.), QB/CB Nick Curley (5-11, 185, Jr.) and WR/S Lionel Manygoats (5-11, 185, Sr.). This talented quartet has already begun to receive individual recognition and Coach Tate is counting on them to help move his club forward in the standings.

Others to watch include OG Chris Martinez (5-11, 210, Sr.), TE/MLB

Antonio Juarez (6-0, 210, Sr.), OT/DT Alden Bennett (6-1, 265, Sr.), C Zac Curley (6-1, 255, So.), OG/DE Calvin Putsoy (6-1, 255, Jr.), OG/DE Duane Molina (6-2, 285, Jr.), TB/CB Ty Nocideneh (5-11, 175, Jr.) and FB/MLB Michael Dee (5-11, 235, Jr.).

Justin Colorado, Justin Daw, Herschel Nez, Ryan Yazzie, Preston Paddock and Jeremiah Greason will also contribute.

HOLBROOK has moved from the 3A East to the 3A North this year. "We're in a new region, so I'm not familiar with the teams," says Head Coach Terry Farmer.

He'll have impressive numbers – 30 letterwinners, 18 starters – back from last season's 2-8 squad. Will that experience and playing in a new region help the Roadrunners? We'll see.

Farmer's best returning players are RB/LB Carlos Baiela (5-8, 150, Sr.), RB/LB Adrian Perkins (5-8, 175, So.), OL/DL Ryan Best (5-10, 260, Jr.), OL/DL Morti Jim (5-10, 220, Jr.), RB/LB Richard Serna (5-9, 135, Sr.), WR/DB Marcos Serna (5-8, 140, Jr.), TE/DE Bubba Page (6-1, 185, Jr.), WR/DB Marcus Castillo (5-8, 140, So.), RB/DE Scott Tafoya (6-0, 170, So.) and OL/DL Tyrell Sulu (5-9, 220, Jr.).

Holbrook has a chance to be much improved.

ALCHESAY split its 10-game schedule last year and has eight starters still available from that group. Lining up against 3A East rivals Blue Ridge, Payson, Round Valley, Show Low and Snowflake is no bargain, but Coach Brandon Newcomb has the Falcons playing hard.

The offensive backfield features QB Harold Quintero (6-0, 170), RB Warren Quintero (5-10, 165), junior FB Frank Larzslere (5-9, 185), RB Ellard Walker (6-0, 180) and junior RB Hobert Walker (6-0, 190).

Senior Carley Edwards (5-9, 215) is a good target at tight end, while SS Vancelor Edwards (5-9, 165, Sr.) helps anchor the secondary. Noteworthy line-men are Josh Johnson (5-9, 205), McKale Parrish (5-10, 225) and Elias Walker (6-1, 280). All three are seniors and play on both sides of the line of scrimmage.

PARKER has a top-notch quarterback running its offense again this season. Senior Cel Hernandez (5-9, 170) registered some good numbers last year (1,128 yards passing, good for 10 touchdowns); he'll attempt to improve on those stats in 2007.

ST. JOHNS is always a contender for region and state titles. This year will be no different.

Coach Mike Morgan has been on the job for 18 years at St. Johns and his record is amazing (176-31-2). His Redskins (9-3 last fall) advanced to the state quarterfinals in 2006, losing a tight 21-18 battle to Phoenix Christian.

His top returning player could be a junior; that's RB/LB Shad Bride, a 6-0, 190-pounder. He'll share carries with Sterling Stradling (6-0, 170, Sr.), Troy Six (5-8, 150, Sr.) and Kyle Hauser (6-0, 165, Jr.). The quarterbacking duties likely will go to either senior Randall Raban (5-11, 160) or junior Byron Wahl (6-2, 190). Junior Daniel Waite (6-1, 170) leads the group of receivers.

Two-way linemen Jake Duthie (6-0, 185, Sr.), Randy Brook (5-8, 200, Sr.), Joel Sullivan (6-1, 190, Sr.), Kenny Cuiriz (6-1, 230, So.) and Mark Carter (5-10, 235, So.) are invaluable to the Redskins.

What a plus for CAMP VERDE to have senior Damien Baca (5-11, 185) back for another year. As a junior in 2006, Baca sprinted for 1,800 yards and 24 TDs rushing, as the Cowboys won 9 of 12 outings.

Nine other lettermen return from that team for Coach Luke Steege. Besides Baca, his mainstays this season should be RB/S Will Trahin (5-11, 185, Sr.), OL/DL Matt Weber (6-3, 270, Sr.), OL/DL Ben Hauser (6-1, 230, Sr.), LB Randy Rezzonico (6-0, 195, Sr.), WR/DB Brendan Nelson (5-11, 165, Sr.), WR/DB Ritchie Watson (5-11, 145, Jr.) OL/DL Wally Saylors (6-0, 270, Jr.) and OL/DL Ryan Carrol (6-1, 185, Jr.).

This should be one of Steege's best teams in his eight-year tenure at Camp Verde.

VALLEY has breakaway back Micheal

Yellowhorse (6-0, 185) returning for his junior season. He was definitely a super soph in 2006, rushing for nearly 1,700 yards. Yellowhorse was very instrumental in leading the Pirates to a fine 7-4 seasonal mark. He'll get some help from OL/DL Bryant Billy, who totaled 75 tackles a year ago.

HOPI couldn't quite get things going last year and the Bruins concluded the season with a 2-7 slate. New Head Coach Ben Willey is working hard to put those losses in the past.

"We'll be young, but we have good talent and more numbers than in recent years," says Willey. "Moving down to the 2A North should help our program immensely. We should be very competitive."

Hopi's top prospects for the 2007 campaign are QB/LB Jerry Johns (5-8, 175, Sr.), QB/RB/DE Roper Crook (5-11, 185, Sr.), FB/OT/DE Garrett Kalemisa (5-9, 220, Sr.), RB/FS Tony Pawesiema (5-8, 165, Jr.), TE/DE Trevor Crook (5-9, 175, So.), C/DL Mekael Scott (5-9, 180, Jr.), RB/CB Bryan Pawesiema (5-8, 165, So.), FB/LB Lani Ackley (5-8, 165, So.), OT/DT Desmond Lomayaktewa (5-10, 200, So.) and RB/CB Erick Kallestewa (5-8, 165, So.).

It could be a big year for the Wildcats of JOSEPH CITY, where a deep group of 22 lettermen return for Coach Bob Corbin. This club was good (7-2) a year ago and, with so much talent and experience on hand, the months ahead could be really interesting.

The best of the bunch are RB/LB Sean DeWitt (6-1, 205, Sr.), TE/DE Cory Thellmann (6-3, 190, Jr.), RB/DB Zack Baldwin (5-8, 170, So.), RB/DB Jared Arder (5-8, 160, Jr.), C/DT Ryan Bray (5-10, 190, Jr.), OG/DL A.J. Taylor (5-11, 185, Sr.), OG/LB Chris Coppinger (6-0, 205, So.), QB/LB William Bain (6-0, 190, Sr.), TE/DE Spencer Baldwin (6-5, 215, So.), OG/DE William Griffith (6-1, 185, Sr.), OL/DL Alexander Paddock (5-10, 283, Jr.) and WR/DB Braden Hansen (5-9, 165, So.).

Corbin expects Jo City to compete with Williams, Mogollon, Valley Lutheran, Pima, Valley Union and Bagdad for state honors.

MAYER has 11 letterwinners back from its 1A State Championship team of a year ago. That group includes four returning regulars.

They are B/DB Aaron Want (5-9, 155, Jr.), OL/DE Jon Langdon (6-2, 230, Sr.), B/LB Luke O'Sullivan (5-10, 170, Sr.) and OL/DL Justin Van Horne (5-9, 175, Sr.).

Rick Lashley is the new head coach, after serving previously as an assistant for the Wildcats. Repeating an undefeated, state championship season is a daunting task, but Mayer has a fine football program. And they just might do it.

BAGDAD went 5-5 last year under the guidance of first-year Head Coach Bill Godsil. The Sultans are counting on 10 returning starters to lead them to higher ground this time out.

Headliners are RB/LB Gavin Beaudry (6-0, 190, Sr.), QB/DB Gaige McKean (6-1, 165, Jr.), OL/DL Jarret Yargus (6-2, 190, Jr.), RB/DB Trystian Knauer (5-6, 145, Sr.) and RB/LB Tony Dominguez (5-10, 170, Jr.).

Senior TB/LB Yoon Kim (6-1, 210) leads a nice contingent of veterans back in uniform at ORME. The Warriors were okay in 2006, finishing with a 4-5 ledger. Better days are just ahead.

Besides Kim, the offense features TE Alike Lemmon (6-5, 185, So.), FB J'Artagnon Coney-Robinson (5-8, 160, Sr.) and TB Spencer Sutherland (6-0, 155, Sr.), in addition to linemen Julian Gradhoff (6-3, 235, Sr.), Buddy Murray (5-11, 295, Sr.) and Michael Lonney (5-10, 175, Sr.).

Junior cornerback Chris Erickson (5-9, 150) is a playmaker in the secondary.

Remembering Dick Stuart

By David Kukulski

Next year, I'll celebrate my 30th year in the sports publishing business. Over the course of my career, I've worked with many school administrators, athletic directors and coaches at the high school level, as well as athletic department managers, sports information personnel and coaches at the collegiate level.

And I've worked with a number of top-flight people in advertising sales. If you're not in the publishing business, it would be nearly impossible for you to know just how important advertisers are to any publication.

When Barry Sollenberger started the Phoenix Metro Football Magazine 37 years ago, he called upon his business friends and acquaintances for advertising support. He called school district officials, athletic directors and coaches. He relied on school booster clubs for the dollars to breathe life into his magazine.

And the community responded! Two years after Barry's death, people like Janie Riddle, Bill Bailey, Jerry Kleven, Cathy Downing, Dave Young, Leroy Gaintner, Mark Matsock, Rich Reid, Michael Lewis, Paul Edge, Kris Hjerpe, Dave Berman and Larry Markichevich – just to name a few – are still supporting these publications that mean so much to so many people.

And so are officials from school districts and individual high schools. From the fall of 1991 until the end of 2006, that was Dick Stuart's specialty.

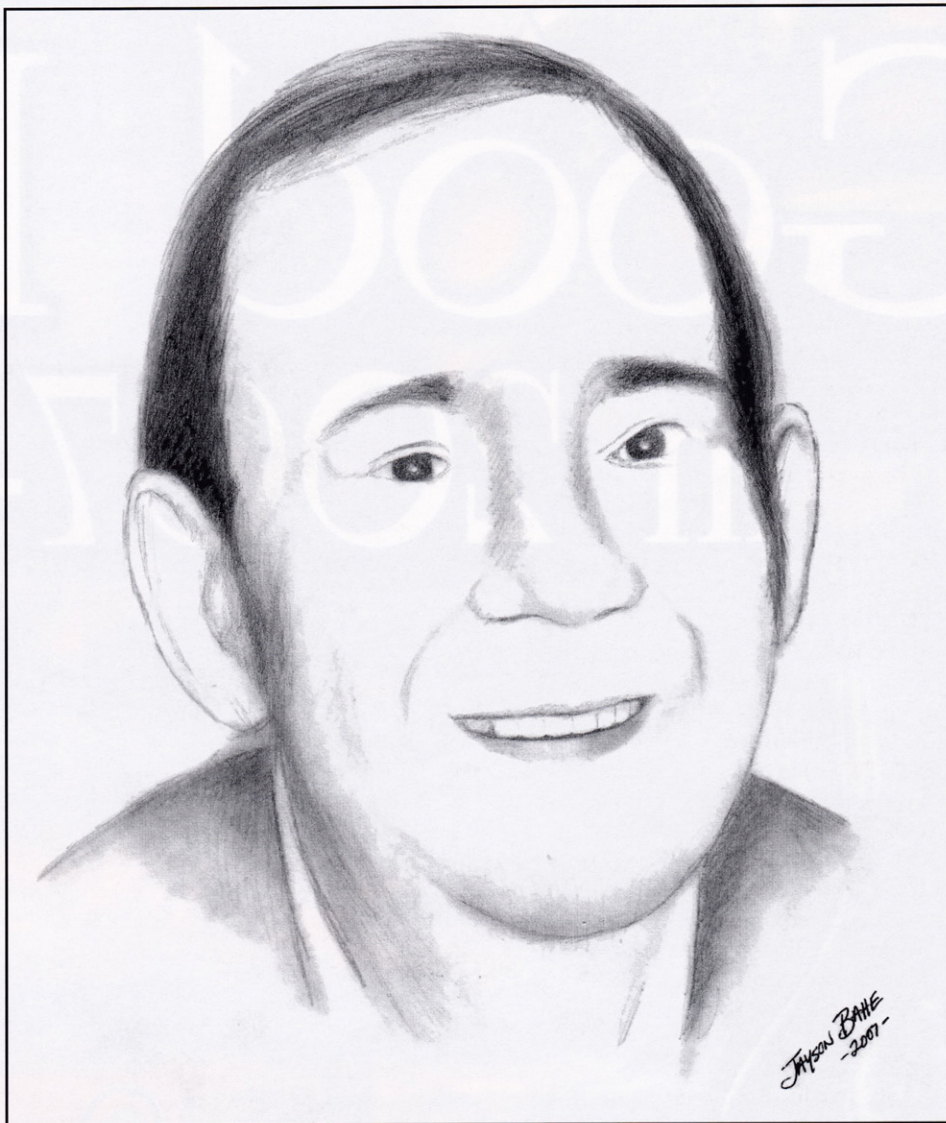

Together we worked on State Championship Programs in Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico, California, Nevada and Connecticut. I put the books together after Dick sold most of the ads.

A call just up the street to his beloved Brophy Prep was often followed by one to Flagstaff High and then by dozens more to Denver, San Diego and Las Vegas. Dick was absolutely relentless.

He believed in these publications. He knew we needed advertisers to keep them alive. And so he pushed on.

Call after call.

"Dave, why won't this guy call me back? Don't these people understand we need them? I think she's avoiding my calls!"

If you're going to sell advertising at any level, you'd better be ready for rejection. It isn't pleasant, but you must accept it as part of the job. You must be willing to make enough calls to reach your goals. It's a numbers game.

Dick was always willing to go the extra mile to help our publications get to press. As the years went by, regardless of his health, he kept making those calls.

Thanks, Dick, for everything you did. Your contributions to high school sports in Arizona, to the Fiesta Bowl and so on were truly outstanding.

And, I of all people know, the only reason Dick isn't working the phones right now is we lost him on December 16, 2006, when he suddenly passed away at the age of 69.

Our company is looking for an advertising salesman. Eventually, we'll find someone. But that person will never replace Dick!

Good Luck in 2007-08

Familiar Names Dominate 2006 Finals

But Newcomers Centennial, Cactus Shadows Emerge as First-Time Champs

It's off to the races for Coolidge running back T.J. White (#3) in the Bears' 28-21 victory over Wickenburg in the 3A title game. Cactus Shadows wide receiver Kyle Watkins (#44) turned in one of the most dynamic performances in Arizona football state finals history, grabbing 21 passes, as the Falcons upended Higley, 28-14, in the 4A-2 finale (Paynter Pics).

By David Kukulski

If you follow prep football in Arizona, you're familiar with the teams from Hamilton, Saguario, Coolidge, Thatcher and Mayer.

Hamilton ... the Huskies have been in the big-school finals five of the last six years, winning the top prize three times.

Saguario ... a couple of appearances in the finals, with one state football crown before 2006.

Coolidge ... this 3A powerhouse now has seven titles in 10 championship games ... will be going for a Three-Peat in 2007.

Thatcher ... six championships in eight title game appearances ... the Eagles constantly battle for 2A honors.

Mayer ... two championships, seven finales in school history for the Wildcats.

So, when the 2006 season ended and the AIA awarded these clubs their beautiful trophies, it was a terrific accomplishment.

It was a proud moment in school history.

But, for the administrators, faculty, students, coaches, players and fans at Centennial and Cactus Shadows, last season was a breakthrough year.

You see, the Coyotes and Falcons, respectively, had never walked away with a state championship trophy in football before.

Not only that, but Coach Richard Taylor at Centennial and Coach Chad DeGrenier at Cactus Shadows guided their teams to perfect seasons – Centennial was 14-0 and Cactus Shadows finished 15-0. The only other undefeated prep football team last year was 1A champ Mayer.

So, congratulations to all seven champions. You gave us a lot of thrills in 2006. The quality of play continues to improve in the Grand Canyon State.

And, to Centennial and Cactus Shadows, welcome to the party! Now the fun really starts – trying to defend those titles.

Let the games begin!

Is This THE Year for the Cardinals?

WHISENHUNT TAKES OVER AS HEAD COACH

Obviously, the Cardinals didn't enjoy much success in 2006. Fans of professional football teams that win five and lose 11 have very little to celebrate, with rare exceptions.

Management wasn't too thrilled either. At season's end, Coach Dennis Green was fired and the Ken Whisenhunt era began. Certainly, Whisenhunt has a great reputation in the league, having served on the coaching staff of the Pittsburgh Steelers for the past six years. And he brought along Russ Grimm to serve as his assistant head coach; Grimm is widely regarded as one of the top offensive line coaches in football.

It isn't as though the Cardinals don't have talent. In fact, that shaky 5-11 ledger could easily have been 8-8 or better, if Arizona had just closed out some games they let get away. Bitter early-season home losses to St. Louis (16-14), Kansas City (23-20) and Chicago (24-23) left fans shaking their heads in disbelief as they exited brand-new University of Phoenix Stadium.

Can they get it right? Start with second-year quarterback Matt Leinart. Green benched veteran Kurt Warner when the club started slowly. In the middle of a devastating seven-game losing streak, Leinart got the nod. He completed nearly 57% of his passes, threw for over 2,500 yards, but finished with more interceptions (12) than touchdowns (11). Warner contributed another 1,377 yards passing, but he was far from spectacular.

Leinart must become the quarterback the Cardinals envisioned when they drafted him. And the sooner the better. Because the franchise needs a great quarterback so badly, Arizona fans are hoping Leinart can grow up quickly.

He has a great pair of wideouts in Anquan Bolden and Larry Fitzgerald. They combined for 152 receptions for 2,149 yards and 10 six-pointers in 2006. And their numbers were down! Remember Fitzgerald missed nearly half of last season due to injury. In 2005, the pair totaled 205 catches for 2,811 yards and 17 TDs.

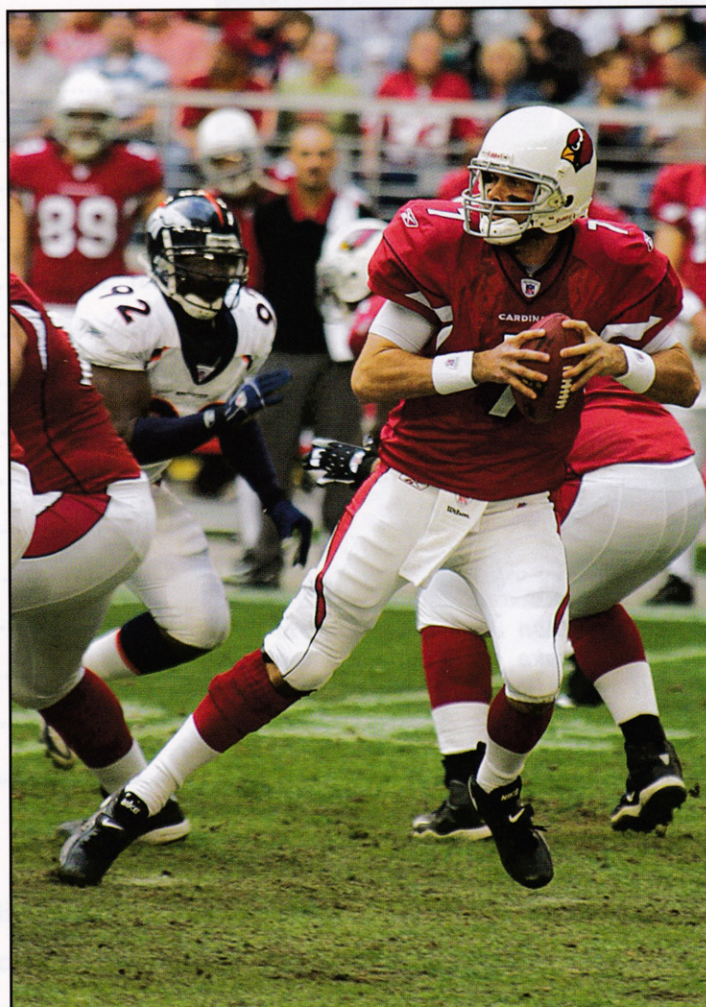

Former Indianapolis Colt Edgerrin James was signed last year to energize the rushing attack. The results were so-so. Yes, James gained his 1,000 yards, but he averaged just 3.4 yards per carry and his long-gainer of the year was 18 yards.

Everyone knows Arizona has been extremely disappointing in the offensive line. Big Leonard Davis left for Dallas and the Cardinals brought in a couple of notable free agents (Mike Gandy and Al Johnson), along with first-round pick Levi Brown of Penn State to shore things up. It looks as though second-year pro Deuce Lutui is a keeper on the OL too. Grimm just needs to work his magic with this group.

Defensively, the Cardinals gave up 24 points and 349 yards in total offense per game. While not horrible, Whisenhunt will be looking for substantial improvement here too.

Veteran safety Adrian Wilson is a playmaker and

The Cardinals went with rookie Matt Leinart at quarterback for most of the 2006 campaign. The former Heisman Trophy winner had his moments, throwing for 2,547 yards and 11 scores. But, for Arizona to post a winning record and have a shot at the playoffs, Coach Whisenhunt and crew will need Leinart to improve on those numbers in 2007 (Paynter Pics).

was named to the Pro Bowl last season for the first time in his career. He wound up with 82 tackles, five sacks, four interceptions and two fumble recoveries on the year.

Who else will step up? Will youngsters like LB Gerald Hayes, LB Karlos Dansby, CB Antrel Rolle, DT Darnell Dockett, S Aaron Francisco, etc. get the job done? Can DE Bertrand Berry make it through a full season and avoid major injuries? Defensive coordinator Clancy Pendergast was retained by Whisenhunt and is widely respected.

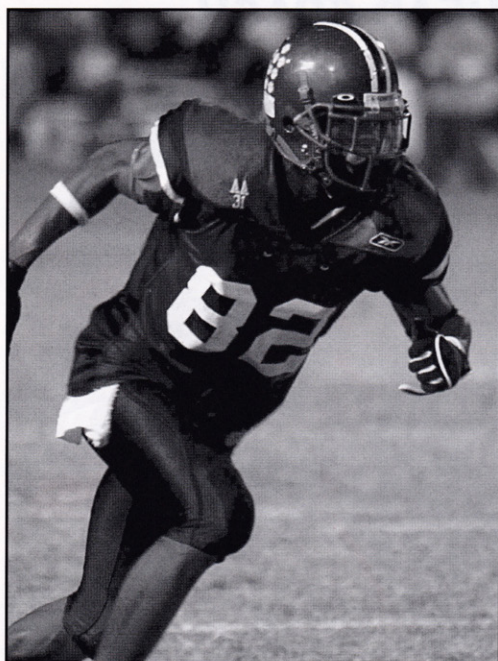

NFL football is known as a field-position game. Can the defense come together and give Leinart and that evolving Arizona offense a short field to the red zone?

How about a few smiles for those Big Red boosters leaving that beautiful stadium this year?
